"I see that the Philadelphia Club has refused to let us play the Athletics in Philadelphia," remarked Manager Mutric yesterday. "I do not know how we can play them now, unless they come here. I would much rather have gone there to play, however, because I know that we would be a much better drawing card in that city than they will be

'Couldn't you stop the Philadelphia Club from playing in Brooklyn?" was asked of our ustling manager.

Well. I don't know." he replied. "But even if I could. I would not; my policy is to live and let live. I know that it will be a good thing for the Brooklyns if the Philadelphia Club plays over there, and it will not hurt us. I have had nothing official from Philadelphia as yet, and until I do, I will not know what arrangements can be made."

washington. Feb. 2.—By a unanimous vote of the League the Indianapolis Club, recently organized under the directions of Mr. Euchhas been elected as the successor of the defunct indianapolis Association, that recently surrendered its franchise. The final vote was received at League headquarters into this afternoon, and President Young promptly issued a builetin announcing the action of the League and also declaring that the new club accepts the services of all the players of the late indianapolis Club held in reserve by the League. This action was brought about in this way: For various reasons the League desired to maintain a club at Indianapolis, and Mr. Brush set to work to get together some new strength upon which to base a League club. Messrs. Dickson and Tabott, well-known men, also put in a bid for the tranchise. These two propositions were fully set forth in a circular istic and mailed to the various members of the League, with a request to indicate their choice by telegraph. Several responses were received resterday but all the returns did not arrive here until te-day. The following is the text of President Young's official buildein on the subject:

PRILADELPHIA. Feb. 2.—Mason's professionals, who have not been beaten this winter, came very near suffering their first defeat at the State fair grounds to-day, when the Cohocksink Club played them a 17 to 18 game. The Kappel brothers playa! a brilliant game, both hitting the ball hard, and fleiding superbly. Seering and Smith pitched with only fair success, although neither tried to outdo the other. Valleen's entehing and the batting of Hallman. Coleman, and Holland were the principal features. Attendance about 500. The score:

BASE BALL NOTES. The Lee Base Ball Club would like to secure an additional pitcher and first base man. The dates for the Brooklyn-New York games have now been settled. They will take place on April 6, 11, and 13.

The most exciting match ever rolled in Hudson county was decided at Muller's alley in Jersey City on Friday night. The contest was for $50 a side between Jacob Lenly of the Americus Club and Frank Muller of the Pin Knights. Both are considered the cracks of the State. The series was best six out of eleven games. Tommy Cummings was reforee. Muller won the first two. Lenly the third and fourth games, Muller the fifth, Lenly the sixth. Muller won the seventh and eighth, and Lenly tied the score by winning the ninth and tenth games. The last game of the series was started amid much excitement. Lenly led for while, but Muller made three strikes in succession, which won for him the victory. The winner's average was 178. Lenly averaged 167. The first of a series of games for a trophy was rolled at Muller's alley on Friday between the Blizzard and Earthquake Clubs, which proved very interesting and ended in a victory

WHAT THE FIGHTERS ARE DOING. Fighting with Bare Knuckles to Settle a

Early yesterday morning, when the residents of Jersey City were on their way to bustness, a fight to a finish with bare knuckles was in progress in a small room of a resort near the Pennsylvania Bailroad depot between Eddie Collins of Jersey City and Tommy Bell of Passaic.

The battle was to settle an old grudge and for a purse subscribed by the spectators. A good deal of money was bet on the outside. A well-known sporting man of Jersey City was referee, and friends of both contestants looked after their interests, while two reporters kept the time. Collins, who is 27 years of age, stood 5 feet 8 inches high, and weighed 145 pounds. Bell is 26 years of age, weighs 148 pounds, Bell is 26 years of age, weighs 148 pounds, and stands 5 feet 10 inches high. Both were in full ring costume.

Bell was the first to lead in the first round, landing on Ceilins's right cheek. This roused the latter, and he began to rush his opponent around the room, raining blows on Bell's head and body. Bell lought back manfully, and it was difficult to decide which had the best of it. When time was called both wont to their corners badly winded.

The second round was a rattler from the start. Coilins planted a stinger with his left on Bell's mouth, splitting the fip. Bell led for the rips, but fell short, and Coilins countered on the face. The bodies of each indicated where most of the blows had landed. As time was called Bell and Coilins against the wall of he room, and was rounding him for keeps.

The third round was marked by hard fighting, blood flowing from both men. Coilins got home a sledge-hammer blow on Bell's nose, and the claret spurfed in all directions. First blood for Coilins, Bell evened matters in the latter part of the round with an upper cut on his opponent's mouth.

Neither seemed anxious to renew heatilities in the fourth round, and considerable sparring was done for wind. In the lifth Coilins endeavored to kneck his opponent out, but his blows lacked steam. Bell fought back and held his own in the raily at the close. The sixth round was lively. It was give and take all over the room.

The fighting had been fast and furious from the start, and the work began to tell on them. They were so weak before the end of the round it had they could scarcely strike a blow. Their holles were covered with blood and bruises, and at the close of the round friends interposed, and the fight was declared a draw. Coilins went over to Bell's corner and offered his hand, which the latter grasped. Both seemed satisfied, and left the hall together to all appearances the best of friends.

Lacondre Oults Like a Steer-A Rattling

The much-talked-of fight between the colored middle weights, Tom Brooks and John Lacendre, which took place yesterday morning near Paterson, turned out to be a farce. One punch on the jaw that Brooks, the smaller his opponent cooled all of Lacondre's fire, and he quit like a man from Quitville.

In order that the forty spectators should not be disappointed, however, an impromptu mill between W. A. Cornell and John Wilson, also be disappointed, however, an impromptu min between W. A. Cornell and John Wilson, also colored and both from Brooklyn, agreed to scrap with skin gloves to a finish for a purse of $50 that was ouickly made up. This was a rattling go. The men both stood 5 feet 5 inches and weighed about 126 pounds. Ed Cotter and Jim Brooks handled Cornell, and Charley Brown and Peter Caulifield looked after Wilson. Dan Gallagher was referee and Johnny Goldman timekeeper.

Neither man pretended to know anything about boxing. Each was simply going in to win that $50 by knocking the other fellow out as soon as possible. For eight rounds they slugged away at each other with a vim that showed earnestness, if not science, and the crowd yelled its delight. Knock downs were frequent. Thump and slug followed smash and punch. The battle was het all over the ring, and blood flowed from body cuts and hummered poses. Wilson began to weaken in the sixth round, but in the soventh came up with astonishing strength. In the eighth he received a right hander on the nose and a left hander on the stomach that made him grunt and settled him.

Cal McCarthy's Reply to Hornbacker and

Cal McCarthy says, in answer to the challenges of Eugene Hornbacker and Billy Weldon. that he is willing to meet either of them for $250 a side or a purse of $500, at 114 pounds. $250 a side or a purse of $500, at 114 bounds, give or take a pound, weigh at the ringside. He says he will pay no attention whatever to challenges for a finish fight under other conditions regarding weight than those here stated. McCarthy and his partner, hilly Hart, have opened their boxing school at 435 Grove street, Jersey City, and Cal says he can now keep himself in good condition giving lessons to his pupils.

AMONG THE RACERS.

Sir Dixon's Stud Qualities Only Have Been

The Dwyer Brothers were seated in the comfortable office of the Brooklyn Jockey Club yesterday afternoon when THE SUN reporter called to inquire when Sir Dixon would be sent to Messrs, Clay & Woodford of the Runnymede Stud in Kentucky, who paid $10,000 for the

Oh, Dixon will stay with us," said Mr. Philip Dwyer. "until we are through racing him. Messrs. Clay & Woodford have merely paid $10,000 for him when we are through racing him, and that may be two or three years yet. They want him to take his sire's place in the

They want him to take his sire's place in the stud."

Mr. Michael F. Dwyer, who is much engrossed in the New Jersey Jockey Club and its proposed track at Elizabeth, showed The Sun's young man the plans which have been accepted for the grand stand, club house, and saudling paddock. They are very spacious and tasteful, and show that the new organization is in the fleid to stay. The grand stand will be similar to that at Gravesend, save that it will be but one story. The grand stand proper will be connected with the club house and saudling paddock, so that gentlemen can pass from one to the other in inclement weather without leaving cover. The stakes to be contested at the regular meetings of the new club will be as liberal as those of any other racing organization in the country, and at present the outlook for the New Jersey Jockey Club is more than rosy.

ficient number of the conspirators are known, however, to turnish a basis for proceeding against them. The object of their conspiracy is no obtain a market for the C. B. and Nerthern road, and to accomplish that end they have been engaged for a year or more in wrecking railroad property, and are now bent upon preventing the consummation of the work that has been done toward putting the entire railroad business of the country upon a sound and profitable basis.

President Perkins of the C. B. and Quincy has, if Chicago advices can be relied upon, acknowledged his connection with and interest in the C. B. and Northern road by endorsing the position that it has taken toward the efforts of its neighbors to improve the railroad situation. The question that naturally arises in this emergency is, who will be responsible if Messers. KING, Gramercy Park Hotel.

10 WORK HORSES for sale or hire; suit any busi-It Looks Bright for the New York Beach Show.

Preparations are rapidly being made for the coming dog show, to be held at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 19 to 22, and the increasing interest shown by the public in purely bred dogs warrants the statement that the Westminster Kennel's beach will be the largest exhibition of high-blooded dogs on record.

The dogs which seem to have made the most rapid strides in public favor as watchdogs and household nots are the picturesque and nobly proportioned St. Bernards. Mastiffs are still in great demand, and a growing sentiment in favor of the English bloodhound, whose powers of scent are their chief characteristic, is rapidly developing. It is expected that fox terriers will be more large'y represented than in re-cent years, from the fact that the redoubtable kennel owned by Mr. Aug. Belmont, Jr., which at recent shows carried off nearly all the prizes, will be on exhibition only, as the owner has consented to be the judge on this occasion.

The American Pet Dog Club will be largely represented by numerous specimens of Kinz Charles and Blenheim spaniels, spaniels from Japan, hairless and Chihuahua dogs from Mexico, crested dogs from China. Pyrenoan sheep dogs from Spain, Thibet mastiffs from Asia, dinges from Australia, and a magnifect specimen of the Russian wellhound from Siberia.

All the raliways connected with the Trunk Line Association, as well as all other roads running to this city, have consented to carry dogs free of charge when accompanied by their owners and keepers, and all the express companies have consented to return dogs free that have been carried by them to the show. Entries can be made up to and including tomorrow, Feb. 4, at room 16, 44 Broadway, to Mr. Jas. Mortimer, superintendent. recent shows carried off nearly all the prizes.

Sporting Notes.

Brooklyn's annual amateur billiard tournament will open in Maurice Daly's billiard parlors to-morrow evening.

Billy O'Brien is confident that his six-day bicycle face at Madison Square Garden will be a great success. Twenty chtries have been received, and the girls are hard at work training for the event.

OLD GOLD.
